NCAC Commissioner College

Saturday, March 14, 2020

Online registration is available now.

Saturday, March 14, 2020 is the 2020 National Capital Area Council College of Commissioner Service at Holy Spirit School in Annandale, Virginia.

Our College of Commissioner Service is a fun-filled day open to everyone interested in training, networking and fellowship, and information on the latest Scouting developments. Whether you are a veteran commissioner with years of experience, a brand-new commissioner about to start your new role, or a parent interested in learning more about Scouting—this event has plenty to offer everyone.

This annual event is modeled after a traditional college with opportunities to earn a Bachelor’s, Master’s, or Doctorate “degree”; to engage in Continuing Education; to complete Unit Commissioner Basic Training; or to just come hear from our keynote lunch speaker BSA National Commissioner Ellie Morrison.

In addition to being our keynote lunch speaker, Ellie Morrison will be presenting a course on Servant Leadership, BSC 109 – The Essential Element: A Servant’s Heart.

And for the first time, we will be offering the new Masters in Roundtable curriculum as well as the newly updated Bachelors in Roundtable curriculum with courses presented by instructors from the BSA National Commissioner Service Task Force.

You can expect a fantastic day packed full of solid learning experiences along with many great opportunities to share ideas, network, and enjoy Scouting fellowship.

Online registration is available now. We look forward to seeing you at Commissioner College on March 14th!

Trust should be the basis for all our moral training. B.P.

Be a Den Chief! A Den Chief is a youth leader who assists a Cub Scout or Webelos Scout den. If you are already a Den Chief, would like to be one, or serve as an adult Cub Scout Leader and want to learn more about Den Chiefs, don’t miss this training event!

During the course, you will learn all about your Den Chief job. You will learn how to make friends with Cub Scouts and Webelos Scouts. You will have fun, learn leadership skills, play games, and take part in activities that help you know better what you are to do in the weekly meetings of your den. Whether or not you were a Cub Scout, you will be helped by this activity-packed day.

This training is open to any scout in Scouts BSA or Venturing/Sea Scout who wants to serve as a Den Chief. We do recommend scouts be active in a scouting unit beyond the Cub Scout level for at least one year before serving as Den Chiefs.

Trust should be the basis for all our moral training. B.P.
POSITION-SPECIFIC TRAINING – Committee Chair, Cubmaster, and Den Leader (including Lion Guides) positions

Where: Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, Counsel Room, 8601 Wolftrap Road, Vienna, Virginia.

In this single class hosted by Pack 976, trainers will cover Den Leader (C42), Cubmaster (C40), and Council Member (C60) Position Specific Training. It will not only build upon your current leadership position knowledge, it will also cover any future position you may transition to. Additionally, it will help provide an understanding of what is expected of your fellow Pack leaders to gain a better appreciation of all the hard work they do for each of us.

Uniform: Class As (preferred)

Cost: There is no registration fee. Pack 976 will provide pizza during the training session.

Please RSVP NLT: 18 March 2020.

2020 Order of the Arrow national officers elected; here’s who represents your region

Zachary Schonfeld, an Eagle Scout from Virginia, has been elected by his peers to serve as National Chief of the Order of the Arrow for 2020.

Zachary, along with National Vice Chief Noah Smith of Arkansas and four region chiefs, will serve and represent nearly 200,000 members of the OA, the BSA’s national honor society.

As a new decade begins, Zachary and his fellow leaders will steer the OA toward continued greatness under their commitment to selfless service. They’ll also continue to welcome young women into the OA as female members are eligible for election in Scouts BSA troops, Venturing crews and Sea Scout ships. (Previously, elections only were for Boy Scout troops.)

This spring, Zachary and his fellow officers will help support PhilBreak, Philmont’s alternative spring break program in which participants help Philmont mitigate fire risk and recover from the 2018 fires that forced the high-adventure base to close for the summer.
After that, Zachary and his fellow officers will be at the helm for the OA’s signature event: NOAC, the National Order of the Arrow Conference. NOAC 2020 will be held in August at Michigan State University. (For an idea of what to expect, take a look back at our complete coverage of NOAC 2015.)

Let’s meet your national OA officers and introduce you to the chief for your region. (Not sure which region you’re in? I’ve blogged about that.)

2020 National OA Chief: Zachary Schonfeld

- From: Reston, Va. (National Capital Area Council)
- Scouting background: Member since 2006 and an Eagle Scout.
- OA background: Vigil Honor member and a Founder’s Award recipient from Amangamek-Wipit Lodge. Former Section NE-6A chief and served as the Northeast Region NLS Chief of Staff.
- Education: Studies political communication at George Washington University, with hopes of becoming a journalist.
- Favorite hobby: Traveling and visiting national parks.
- Random fact: His dad’s best man was 1988 National Vice Chief Angelo Cappelli.
- Quotable: “I’m excited to build on the momentum we created this year to improve lodge performance and initiate long-term change for our organization. Between NOAC, Section ACT Conferences, and every event in between, I can’t wait to meet Arrowmen from all over and make our brotherhood stronger than ever before."

Your three national youth officers

As national chief, Zachary Schonfeld joins 2019-20 National Venturing Officers’ Association President Pamela Petterchak and 2019-20 National Sea Scout Boatswain Hannah Carter as the three highest-ranking youth leaders in the Boy Scouts of America.

These three youth leaders sit on the BSA’s National Executive Board, helping shape the future of our great movement.

As one of his first acts, Zachary will join Pamela, Hannah and a group of other impressive Scouts and Venturers at the BSA’s Report to the Nation, beginning in late February in Washington, D.C. (As always, you can expect full coverage of the Report to the Nation experience right here on Bryan on Scouting.)
