

LEARN TO TALK LIKE A SAILOR!

Do you know the difference between a sheet, a boom vang, a cleat, a leech, and a galley? Here's your chance to get a clew!

Calling all Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and friends or siblings at least 12 years old... Come spend a fun evening with the Sea Scouts and learn a little about sailing. Information about earning the Small Craft Sailing merit badge will be available—and by the end of the evening, you may even have completed 2 requirements! Learn about upcoming opportunities to complete the merit badge before summer, and other sailing opportunities—or just come out for one night of fun!

Sunday, January 7, 2018 6:30 - 8:00 p.m.

Greenfield Lighthouse - Major Dr. & Greenfield Rd., Germantown

FREE – But space is limited, so pre-registration is required. To register or for more information, contact skipper@ship125.org

This is a fun night to learn a little about sailing. Information about Sea Scouting will be available and what the program can offer Troops and individual Scouts—but there is no obligation to join. Sea Scouting is a co-ed program of the Boy Scouts of America for youth ages 13-20.
