Parent's Guide To Cub Scouting

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®
NATIONAL CAPITAL AREA COUNCIL

PURPOSES OF CUB SCOUTS

Cub Scout packs serve boys who are in first through fifth grade (or 6 through 10 years of age)*. Boys, families, leaders, and chartered organizations work together to achieve the 10 purposes of Cub Scouts:

- Character Development
- Spiritual Growth
- Good Citizenship
- Sportsmanship
- Family Understanding
- Respectful Relationships
- Personal Achievements
- Friendly Service
- Fun and Adventure
- Preparation for Boy Scouts

*Some packs are participating in a pilot experiment with the Lions program for boys age 5.

What are Cub Scouts?

Cub Scouts are the Scouting program for boys in first through fifth grades (or 6-10 years old). For more than 100 years the Boy Scouts of America (BSA) has provided high quality, fun and educational programs designed to help young boys build moral strength and character, develop fitness, and become active, responsible citizens.

Cub Scouts emphasizes a year-round, home-centered program at the local level that helps to strengthen the family. Cub Scouts - including Tigers, Wolves, Bears, and Webelos Scouts - is the largest of BSA's programs. The other programs are Boy Scouts (which includes Varsity Scouts), Venturing, Sea Scouts, and Exploring.

Your Child's Safety: Our Top Priority

Boy Scouts of America's number one priority is the safety and protection of your child while involved in any Scouting activity. For this reason, we work closely with our chartered organizations to help recruit the best possible leaders for their units. We take great pride in the quality of our adult leadership and in our application review process. Each registered adult leader goes through an extensive background check and is required to take Youth Protection Training courses every two years.

As a major youth-serving organization, the Boy Scouts of America has a unique opportunity to help protect the youth of our nation. In addition to helping families address the problem of child abuse, BSA has adopted a comprehensive set of policies and procedures designed to ensure that Scouting continues to be safe for all participants. BSA is a national leader among youth-serving agencies in addressing the potential threat that child abuse poses to young people.

Your Son, Scouting, and You... A Parent's Guide To Cub Scouting

As a parent you want your son to grow up to be self-reliant, dependable and caring. Scouting has these same goals. For more than 100 years we have been helping boys be "Prepared. For Life." through fun and educational activities designed to assist parents in strengthening character, citizenship, and physical and mental fitness in youth.

But boys don't join Scouting to build character. Boys join because it is filled with fun adventures!

The Cub Scout Pack

The Cub Scout pack is a group of boys from first through fifth grade. Led by the volunteer Cubmaster, the pack meets once a month. There are games, skits, stunts, songs, ceremonies, and presentations of awards the boys earned that month. The pack also runs many special programs, such as Pinewood Derbies, hikes and weekend campouts.

Dens

The larger pack is broken into smaller groups of 6-8 boys by grade levels, called dens. Den meetings are led by volunteer den leaders and assistant den leaders with help from the boys' parents. Den leaders and parents decide on a convenient meeting place and time, and meet weekly to work on age appropriate activities. Tiger dens are first-graders, Wolf dens are second-graders (or 8 years old), Bear dens are third-graders (or 9 years old), and Webelos dens are fourth- and fifth-graders (or 10 years old).

The Pack is Run by the Pack Committee Who:

- |   |  |   |
|---|--|---|
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Selects leadership      | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Manages pack finances    | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Helps train leaders |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Finds meeting places    | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Orders badges and awards | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Recognizes leaders  |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Performs record keeping | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Maintains pack equipment |   |

All of the leaders in the pack get together once a month to plan the details of each monthly pack program and coordinate den programs.

Each Pack is Owned by a Chartered Organization Which:

- A. Could be a parent-school organization, religious organization, service club, or other organization interested in youth.
- B. Approves leadership, helps secure a meeting place, keeps the pack within the organization's and Boy Scout's guidelines and policies.
- C. Selects a chartered organization representative (a liaison between the pack and its chartered organization).

The Advancement Plan

Recognition is important to young boys. The advancement plan provides fun, gives Scouts a sense of personal achievement, and strengthens family understanding, participation and appreciation.

Lion

Some packs are participating in pilot program with the Lion program for boys age 5. They work on Adventures like the older grades, but they do not earn Bobcat first. As this is an experimental program, Lion is not a rank worn on the uniform like the other badges.

Bobcat

Beginning in Tiger year, all new Cub Scouts earn the Bobcat badge first by learning the Scout Oath and Scout Law, the Cub Scout handshake, salute, sign, and motto, and earning the Cyber Chip Award.

After receiving the Bobcat badge, each boy works on requirements based on his grade level.

Tigers

The Tiger program is for first-grade (or age 6) boys and their adult partners. A Tiger, working with his adult partner, earns the Tiger badge. Adventures include indoor and outdoor activities just right for a boy in the first grade.

The responsibility for a boy's advancement in Cub Scouting lies with the family, not with the pack. Some advancement requirements are done at den meetings, but most are done at home with the family.

Wolf

A Cub Scout who has completed first grade (or is age 8) works towards the Wolf badge. Scouts learn about the outdoors and Leave No Trace, our neighborhoods and community service, and good health.

Bear

A Cub Scout who has completed second-grade (or is age 9) works towards the Bear badge. Scouts will learn about nature, how to take care of themselves, the value of helping others, having fun, and patriotism.

Webelos

A Cub Scout who has completed third grade (or becomes 10 years old) transfers to a Webelos den and works on requirements for the Webelos badge and the Arrow of Light - the highest award in Cub Scouts!

Camping and outdoor programs are an important part of the 18-month Webelos program. Webelos are introduced to Boy Scouts and visit troops. In the spring of a Webelos' 5th grade year, he graduates from Cub Scouts into Boy Scouts. Many packs celebrate this with impressive "cross over" ceremonies.

Things To Do In Cub Scouts

Pinewood Derby

Scouts and their parents build a race car made from a block of wood. This is among the best known Cub Scout activities. Be there the night of the big race!

Popcorn Sales

With prizes and incentives, there is no shortage of fun for Cub Scouts as they earn money to help their pack! Past prizes included tickets to Nationals games, an iPad, and college scholarships!

The money they earn also helps reduce the cost of Scouting to the family. Boys set and work towards individual and pack goals, learning responsibility and team work.

Blue and Gold Banquet

A birthday party for Cub Scouting usually held during February. Families gather with food, fun and games.

Boys' Life Magazine

A monthly magazine for boys and adults. Boys' Life has interesting features on Scouting, sports, hobbies, magic, science and U.S. history. There are also jokes, comics and short stories.

Scouting for Food

This annual food drive benefits local food banks. Scouting for Food takes place on the first two Saturdays in November every year.

Last year Scouting for Food collected a 1,000,000 pounds of food!

Outdoor Adventures

Cub Scouts take part in outdoor adventures. Many packs enjoy family camping, picnics, hiking, and/or fishing.

A Cub Scout's first summer camp is usually day camp. Come to one of our local camps and experience a wide range of fun outdoor adventures!

Camp William B. Snyder is a full Cub Scout camp – like the ones older Boy Scouts attend! Open year-round, Cub Scouts, parents, and leaders may camp, eat at the dining hall, and experience an exciting outdoor program. Visit www.GoToSynder.org for more info.

What Will Scouting Cost Me?

Dues vary by pack; ask your pack and den leaders. Some packs do money-earning projects like selling popcorn or camp cards to reduce the out-of-pocket expense. Annual pack dues include BSA registration and insurance ($25), and may include a Boys' Life subscription ($12) and funds for recognition and major activities. Some dens also collect dues to cover the cost of den activities. Major activities, such as family camping or Blue & Gold Banquets, may have separate costs.

Uniforms can cost between $50 and $100 and last at least several years, depending on how fast boys outgrow them. Check to see what your pack recommends. Uniforms may be purchased at the local Scout Shops or online at www.ScoutStuff.org. Used ones may be available at thrift shops or websites like eBay. Many packs or districts have a uniform exchange. Check with pack leaders regarding financial assistance if needed.

Cubs Need Leaders... And Leaders Need Support!

Parents

You're a primary role model for your child. Children need your guidance along their Scouting path, not to do the work for them, but with them. All parents help their sons with advancement and assist their pack or den with special projects. Here's a look at some of the people and resources available to help you and your son:

Cubmaster

Conducts the monthly pack meeting. Aids den leaders by coordinating the monthly program for all leaders. Attends monthly pack leaders' meeting.

Committee Chair

Why Be A Leader?

Being a leader is fun, challenging and rewarding. Leaders find their experiences help them to become better parents, co-workers and friends. The following are some of the many benefits that will enrich your life as you dedicate your time, talent and enthusiasm to Scouting:

- Fun and fellowship with other families, sharing your talents and your pride in the boys' accomplishments.
- The opportunity to help make a difference in the lives of boys as they grow strong in mind and body.
- The privilege of helping to enrich and strengthen families in your community.
- The satisfaction of being a member of a world-wide movement and pride in being publicly identified as a part of this organization – wearing the Scouting uniform is a visible means of showing you believe in and stand up for the ideals and objectives of the Boy Scouts of America.
- A chance to help boys learn good citizenship and to help shape them into men who have strength of character and are sensitive to the needs of others.
- A code to live by that will set a worthwhile example for both boys and adults.

Who Pays for Scouting?

Youth Members and their families...

Members buy their own uniforms, handbooks and personal equipment, and pay their own camp fees. Some units cover part or all of their fees with money earning projects.

and Packs...

Weekly or monthly dues and funds from approved money-earning projects meet expenses for supplies and activities in the Cub Scout pack. These monies help pay for special activities, and program materials. Some Packs also have scholarships available.

and Community Organizations...

Each chartered organization using the Scouting program provides a meeting place and adult volunteer leadership for its BSA unit(s). The chartered organization and local council must approve unit money-earning projects before the launch of the project.

and...

National Capital Area Council

Each year National Capital Area Council establishes a budget to provide unit service, administration, training, outdoor and camping facilities and quality program activities in the continuing effort to serve more youth. Just as your pack raises funds for unit operation through dues and money-earning projects, the council raises funds for council operation through the United Way/CFC and other methods.

Our council conducts an annual Friends of Scouting campaign to provide opportunities for parents, Scouters and community members to financially support the growth of the Scouting program.

and the National Organization...

Funds to support the national organization of the Boy Scouts of America come from registration fees, local council service fees, investment income, Scouting and Boys' Life magazines, sale of uniforms and equipment, contributions from individuals and foundation grants. These monies help more than 300 local councils deliver the Scouting program to chartered organizations to meet the needs of their youth.
