Adventure Awaits...

Located on the southern coast of St. Croix, the largest of the US Virgin Islands, Camp Howard M. Wall is your stepping stone to untold island adventures.

Open September to April.

Camp Wall is open to Scout groups, church groups, company retreats, weddings, and more.
Around the Island

There’s lots to do around the island.

- Visit the town of Christiansted and check out local cuisine and restaurants.
- Go to the beaches.
- Visit Point Udall, the easternmost point of the USA.
- Visit historic sites, like the Whim Great House and sugar mills, and learn about the island’s cultural history.
- Outfitters offer activities including snorkeling, scuba diving, jetskiing, parasailing, and more.
- Visit various natural areas and see sea turtles, go on a bioluminescent kayak tour, tide pools, the desert, and the rain forest.

Getting There

St. Croix is just a two and a half hour plane ride from Miami. The St. Croix Airport has two options for getting to Camp Wall:

- Shuttle Bus (about 40 minutes)
- Rental Car (about 30 minutes)

There is a grocery store within a 10 - 15 minute drive of the camp and a gas station within a 5 minute drive of the camp.

Amenities

Camp Wall offers 17 acres of open campground with a beach frontage.

The camp can house 46 people. A camping shelter has space for 16 people. There are also 15 two-person canvas tents with cots.

Cost to rent is $100 per person, per week, and is available September through April.

Renting also includes access to:

- Showerhouse with individual stalls.
- Large covered pavilion.
- A full industrial kitchen.
- Recreational Amenities.

Recreation

- Beachfront with an amazing view of the Caribbean Sea and fishing, swimming, wading, and kayaking.
- Full court basketball court.
- Horseshoe pit.
- Croquet.
- Indoor recreation area with ping pong, a big screen television, and board games.

It’s Always Camping Season
