

Summer Leadership Seminars

presented by NYLT staff

Seminar #5 Notes

If your Unit Leader or Scoutmaster asks...

These seminars provide Scouts opportunities to continue their leadership development despite the cancellation of summer NYLT. The fast-paced, 50 minute presentations are not a substitute for a NYLT course but allow Scouts to examine important leadership topics

Summer Leadership Seminar #5:

How To Deliver Engaging Unit Meetings Over Zoom - Revisited

Seminar #2 Recap

The best way we've found to increase engagement is to have plenty of small "points of interaction" planned to break up segments. Instead of having one long activity, think about using shorter segments presented by multiple people. You may want to think of a meeting more like a campfire with many shorter acts.

Craft the Right Question

Keep your audience interacting by asking well crafted questions that get good and usable answers.

To get "good answers"

1. Ask Scouts to enter answers into the Chat so people aren't talking over each other.
2. Avoid questions answered with a "Yes" or "No."
3. Don't ask questions with long answers. They take a long time to type and read.
4. Ask for "one or two words answers." Scouts can answer quickly and you can process them all.

For instance: "How confident are you about your knot tying skills when someone asks you to tie a bowline knot? Please type one or two words into the chat."

Growing Scout engagement like a fire

Start with things that are "easy" for Scouts to do, like answering simple Polls. Move on to questions to get them thinking. If you have time and resources, split Scouts into Breakout Rooms to have real discussions.

If you do all this, you will have developed the gold standard for any Scouting Event. You will have delivered a Shared Experience.

Creating a "Shared Experience" is the ultimate goal

Tools and Resources (Reprinted from Seminar #2)

1. Quick Interactions you can sprinkle throughout your program to keep Scouts engaged
2. Online Games and Activities
3. Touch on Larger events that can be held online

1. Quick Interactions:

Plan a Gathering Activity like a *Trivia Game* to get Scouts engaged immediately.

Offer *Fabulous Prizes.* These can be cheap or even free, such as custom Virtual Backgrounds.

- You don't have to offer prizes, but the rule is you have to deliver what you promise.

Use the *Spotlight* feature to highlight presenters. Scouts can go back to Gallery View, but this is helpful to focus attention on a presenter.

Create Polls. Note: This feature, along with some others mentioned here require a Zoom "Pro" license.

Use the Chat feature to engage with larger groups.

2. Online Games and Activities

Trivia Games

Kahoot <https://kahoot.com/>

Quizizz <https://quizizz.com/>

Other Online Games

JackBox <https://www.jackboxgames.com/>

Some Troops LOVE these but be aware they cost money and some may not be appropriate for Scouts, you need to be careful!

Free Digital Escape Rooms such as:

Hogwarts Digital Escape Room

To use Escape Rooms you may need to come up with a way to vote. For instance, which way are we going to go, "left" "right" or "backwards"?

There are lots of creative ways to set up voting on Zoom such as turning your camera on or off to vote for different choices; or using a whiteboard everyone can draw on to mark down their vote.

Simple Card and Board Games <http://playingcards.io/>

checkers, chess, backgammon and more. Replicates sitting around a game board... no computerized rules that snap you to the correct position. You have complete control over placement.

Arrange for a checkers tournament.

Bingo

Scattergories

<https://scattergoriesonline.net/>

Pictionary

Word Generator: <https://randomwordgenerator.com/pictionary.php>

Charades

Use with Spotlight Mode

<http://www.getcharadesideas.com/>

Variation: Reverse Charades

One person is "it" while everyone else acts out a word. You can get the word to the large group by privately messaging everyone individually, OR by writing it down and showing it on your screen while the person who is "it" closes their eyes. Then, once they have guessed, you move to the next person. The way to make this competitive would be to time how long it takes each person individually to guess OR, put people onto teams. If team A's representative doesn't guess within a minute, then the turn switches to team B. If team A does guess before a minute is up, then their team gets to go again.

Name, Place, Animal, Thing

<https://www.instructables.com/id/How-to-play-name-place-animal-thing/>

This popular kids' game works well on Zoom. To play, pick a letter. Each player has to list a famous person's name, a place, an animal, and a thing that begins with that letter. The first person to type them into the Zoom chat wins.

One word stories

Take it in turns to share one word at a time and try and create a logical story! This game is tons of fun when people hijack the direction of the plot and suddenly beloved characters are exploded, the world is turned inside out or a plant starts talking!

Kim's Game

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Kim%27s\_Game

<https://www.wikihow.com/Play-Kims-Game>

Google Forms: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LxlfPLPI0wM>

Gather about 15 items (spoon, knife, compass, etc.) and lay them on the floor or a bedsheet. Make sure they are visible. Point the camera at the objects for 30-60 seconds. Then share a link to a Google Form where each Scouts can type their name and list the objects. After submitting all forms a judge can score them to find the winner.

Activities:

Demonstrating Skills over Zoom

Use the Scout Handbook- Giving people a shared experience can start with using shared resources. If you're in a Troop, everyone will have the Scout Handbook. You can tell people what you will be going over, for instance ("We're going to reference page 195 during our session on Tree Identification.")

Innovative Camera Angles- Instead of always "fitting into the rectangle" try moving your camera to capture what you need to show. For instance:

-Tilt the camera down to demonstrate close up work, like knot tying. Consider using a plain colored background to help people focus on what you want them to see.

-Wide Shots can help break up the grid and turn your meeting into an "interactive movie." For instance, Troop 187 in Fairfax demonstrated water rescues on dry land, talking through the steps and taking questions.

-Move Outside- If your wifi connection can handle it, broadcast from outside to try and keep the "outing" in Scouting.

Instructional Videos- Look for the special option in Zoom to help you share video and audio. Use online videos to help make important points but try not to rely too heavily them and avoid long videos. Ask questions afterwards. Make these questions open-ended, such as: what was the most important point made in this video?

EDGE Method over Zoom

The EDGE method, where we Explain, Demonstrate, Guide and Enable people while learning new skills can be tough over Zoom. But here's an idea:

In a large group, have a single presenter Explain and Demonstrate a skill, like tying a bowline knot. Then use Breakout Rooms for the Guide and Enable sections.

Each Breakout Room should include two adults for Youth Protection.

Put someone who can check the work (like an instructor) in each Breakout Room along with a small number of Scouts who are still learning.

In this smaller group, each Scout should be able to get time to work through the skill.

The "host" can check on all the rooms to make sure things are going well or address problems.

Using the Whiteboard in Zoom

You can create a whiteboard under the Share menu that everyone can draw on. The creative uses for this are endless.

Find out how to start a whiteboard here: <https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/205677665-Sharing-a-whiteboard>

Specific ideas:

Vote quickly: Draw two columns and have everyone tick a line on whichever side they vote. (Do you want to play a Quizizz or a game of Pictionary at the next meeting?)

Multi-vote: Have lots of choices? Split the screen into multiple columns and tell everyone they can vote twice, or three times... find out which candidate got the most votes. (What Marvel movie should we watch: Captain Marvel, Thor, Avengers, or Iron Man?)

Worried about people voting more than they should? You can enable an option called "Show Names of Annotators" to display the name of the person writing something.

Instruction over Zoom: Keeping it concise

This presentation method is getting very popular and is worth looking into.

Pecha Kucha: pick 20 pictures (not wordy slides) and set timer to advance slide after 20 seconds.

3. Larger Online Events

Netflix Party: <https://www.netflixparty.com/> Netflix- chrome extension

Pros: everyone can watch a movie together

Cons: everyone needs to have a Netflix account; Free 30-day account available

Tournaments using Breakout Rooms

More Ideas:

Large Scale Ice Breakers Games

Boggle, Box of Lies, Scavenger Hunt

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WEhIQts8570>

10 Easy Games

Simon Says, What's this Sounds?, More

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0yIUGa2VB4w>

Search or Create Your Own Activities

People are developing and posting new and creative ways to play games all the time. Search on Google or Youtube for additional ideas. Consider using search words such as:

Youth Group Online Games For Zoom

Group Zoom Games For Teens

Online Ice Breaker Games

* always check to make sure content is appropriate for the group you're serving

Big Idea: Anything that helps you break out of the Zoom Grid can be exciting.

Remember: "Always leave them wanting more"
Then they'll come back excited.

Bonus Webinar Hints

If you're planning a Webinar event, here are some tricks we've found very useful!

Registering Through Zoom

Makes life easy for events.

More inf: <https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/211579443-Registration-for-Meetings>

Custom Registration Questions

This is cool. Add specialized questions to registration. We recommend NOT turning what is supposed to be a simple transaction into a "college application" by asking too much. Also, how much info do you really need?

More info: <https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/202835649-Webinar-Registration-Customization>

Custom Registration Questions, Part 2

Hint: Asking registrants if they have questions about the topic ahead of time is GREAT information for us to have. It has steered some of our discussions about what to present and, hopefully, made our trainings more relevant to those we seek to serve.

Automatic Reminder emails

A webinar can automatically send an email reminder 1 week, 1 day and 1 hour before your event begins. As soon as we figured this out, the % of registered attendees increased dramatically!

More info: <https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/203686335-Customizing-webinar-email-settings>

Post Webinar Survey

You can set up a Google Form (or other survey) and have it appear when attendees leave the webinar.

More info: <https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/360000518526-Post-attendee-URL>
